

CONTENTS

| | |
|---------------------|--------|
| Introduction | pag. 7 |
|---------------------|--------|

PART I The European comparison

| | |
|--|------|
| 1. Precarious work and high-skilled youth in Europe, Manuela Samek Lodovici and Renata Semenza | » 11 |
| 1.1. European comparative analysis: main research findings | » 11 |
| 1.2. Further research questions | » 16 |
| 1.3. Highly skilled young workers: a policy issue for Southern Europe | » 21 |
| 2. Recent trends and features of precarious work in Europe, Nicoletta Torchio | » 24 |
| 2.1. Incidence and characteristics of temporary work | » 25 |
| 2.2. Highly skilled young workers and precariousness | » 30 |
| 2.3. Temporary work in times of crisis | » 34 |
| 2.4. Labour market transitions | » 36 |
| 3. Legislation and policies for young workers in Europe: an overview, Eugenia De Rosa and Flavia Pesce | » 41 |
| 3.1. Policies for young workers between youth strategy and flexicurity | » 43 |
| 3.2. Employment protection legislation: temporary contracts and contractual arrangements | » 51 |
| 3.3. Policies and measures addressing youth needs during the crisis | » 55 |
| 3.4. Conclusions | » 63 |

PART II

Country case studies

| | |
|--|----------------|
| 4. Italy: precariousness and skill mismatch, Annalisa Murgia, Brabara Poggio and Nicoletta Torchio | pag. 71 |
| 4.1. Overview of precarious work and labour market transitions | » 71 |
| 4.2. Policies for young highly skilled workers | » 87 |
| 4.3. Qualitative analysis | » 92 |
| 4.4. Focus group with stakeholders | » 107 |
| 5. Spain: random transitions in the labour market, Elvira González Gago, Susana González Olcoz and Marcelo Segales Kirzner | » 112 |
| 5.1. Overview of precarious work and labour market transitions | » 112 |
| 5.2. Mapping national/local policies | » 120 |
| 5.3. Qualitative analysis | » 132 |
| 5.4. Focus group with stakeholders | » 149 |
| 5.5. Proposals and policy recommendations | » 150 |
| 6. The UK: longer labour market transitions and deskilling, Kari P. Hadjivassiliou, Tom Higgins, Catherine Rickard and Stefan Speckesser | » 155 |
| 6.1. Overview of precarious work and labour market transitions | » 155 |
| 6.2. National policies | » 167 |
| 6.3. Qualitative analysis | » 177 |
| 6.4. Focus group with stakeholders | » 190 |
| References | » 198 |